Emirates — Checked Baggage

Before You Fly | Prepared from the text provided by the user

Overview

Enjoy one of the most generous baggage allowances in the world. Your free baggage allowance is based on either the total amount of weight or on how many pieces of luggage you have. This is called the weight or piece concept.

The weight concept applies to most routes. The piece concept applies only on flights to and from the Americas and Africa. Your allowance depends on where you're travelling, your fare, and your travel class.

There are general rules and guidelines for baggage allowance on Emirates flights. To check the baggage rules specific to your journey, and how much extra baggage will cost, visit Manage your booking. If you're an Emirates Skywards Platinum, Gold, or Silver member, you could also enjoy extra baggage allowance on routes that use the weight concept. When travelling on piece concept routes on Emirates flights only, Emirates Skywards Platinum and Gold members are eligible for 1 additional piece of checked baggage at 23kg per piece in Economy Class and 32kg per piece in Business Class and First Class over the ticketed limit.

Weight concept

Your allowance is based on the total weight of all your baggage.

You can check in as many bags as you like up to the weight allowance for your travel class. Each individual bag must not weigh more than 32kg.

The weight concept applies to all routes, except when you travel to and from the Americas and from Africa (for tickets issued before 9 August 2021).

Piece concept (the Americas and Africa)

You can check in a certain number of bags, and each bag has a weight allowance. Your allowance depends on your fare or travel class.

The piece concept applies to flights to and from the Americas and flights originating in Africa. For tickets issued on or after 9 August 2021, the piece concept applies for flights into Africa as well.

Travel from Australia, New Zealand, or Asia

If you are travelling into Africa with a stopover of more than 24 hours, the weight concept may apply.

Checked baggage dimensions for piece concept

The total dimensions (length + width + height) of each checked baggage must not exceed 150 cm (59 inches). Individual items with total dimensions exceeding 150 cm (59.05 inches) but lower than 203 cm (79.92 inches) will be subject to oversize baggage fees.

Individual items with total dimensions exceeding 203 cm (79.92 inches) cannot be transported as checked baggage, and must be sent as cargo or freight.

Interline baggage policy

If your travel starts in the United States and the first airline on your booking is not Emirates, different rules may apply.

Interline flights are flights that are on the same ticket as your Emirates flights but are operated by another airline and do not have an Emirates flight number (Emirates flight numbers start with EK). These airlines baggage allowances may be different from Emirates. You can read the interline partner baggage allowances for information on allowances and charges for carry-on baggage and checked baggage.

Checking in more than 15 bags

For operational and safety reasons, if you are checking in more than 15 pieces of baggage, we may not be able to transport all of your extra baggage on the same flight as you.

- We'll carry your extra baggage on the next available flight and deliver your bags to you within five days.
- Our excess baggage terms and conditions apply.
- The Montreal Convention 1999 or the Warsaw Convention 1929 (as amended) will apply to your extra baggage as though it had been carried on the same flight as you. Your baggage will only be considered delayed under these conventions if it does not arrive within five days after your flight.

Please note this is not applicable for flights to and from the United States.
