1. Overview

If your baggage has been delayed or damaged on an Emirates flight, Emirates will keep you updated at every stage of your claim.

2. Check the Status of Your Baggage Claim

To access information and updates about delayed or damaged baggage, enter your last name and file reference number (PIR).

Your PIR number was sent to you after you filed your claim.

3. Frequently Asked Questions

3.1 Compensation for Delayed Baggage

If your checked baggage was delayed, you may be eligible for compensation.

- Contact Emirates within 21 days of receiving your baggage.
- Include receipts for any essential clothing or toiletries purchased during the delay.
- The contact form allows you to submit up to two documents of 7 MB each.
- Use the Add Field option to upload additional documents.

3.2 If Your Baggage Is Declared Lost

If your baggage is declared lost, Emirates will contact you to arrange compensation.

3.3 Delivery of Found Baggage

Once Emirates has found your baggage and it has been cleared by customs, the airline will contact you to arrange a suitable delivery time.

However, in some countries, local laws and regulations prevent Emirates from clearing baggage through customs on your behalf. In such cases, you will need to collect your baggage from the airport.

Airport staff will inform you of this requirement when you register the missing baggage at Arrivals.

4. Tracking Baggage Using the Emirates App

Use the baggage tracker in the Emirates app to see where your baggage is at every step of your journey.

You can track your baggage through the following stages:

- Check-in
- Loading onto the aircraft
- Transfer to a connecting flight
- Arrival at your destination
- Baggage belt number when your baggage is ready for collection in Dubai

4.1 How to Track Your Bags in the App

To track your bags:

1. Open the Emirates app.
2. Go to Notifications on the home screen.
3. Alternatively, open the baggage section under My Trips.

You can track your bags on nearly all Emirates routes. In some destinations, you can also receive notifications about your baggage carousel number.

4.2 Tracking Without the App

If your baggage is delayed, you will automatically receive a reference number called a PIR and will be able to track the status of your baggage.

If you do not have the Emirates app, use the delayed or damaged baggage tracker on the Emirates website:

5. Delayed Baggage Tracing Process

When baggage is delayed, Emirates starts the process of tracing it.

The airline may ask you for certain documents. You will also need to complete a Baggage Inventory Form (BIF), which provides information about the contents of your baggage.

As multiple airlines or airports may be involved, the tracing process may take up to 21 days.

5.1 Completing the Baggage Inventory Form (BIF)

Complete the Baggage Inventory Form with a list of the contents of your bag.

Important instructions:

- Check that you have included everything accurately.
- Once the form is submitted, it cannot be edited or resent.
- To access the form, enter your last name and the PIR number provided when you reported your bag missing.

6. Responsibility for Baggage Claims on Connecting Flights

The airline operating the final sector of a journey is responsible for processing the baggage claim.

This applies even if you were travelling on an Emirates ticket but travelled on a flight operated by another airline.
