2. Disruption Advice

2.1 How Will Passengers Be Notified of Flight Delays or Cancellations?

If an Emirates flight is delayed or cancelled, Emirates will send an email and SMS notification to the contact details provided in the booking.

Passengers should:

- Keep their contact details updated through Manage Your Booking.
- If they booked through a travel agent, provide the agent with their latest contact information so they can receive flight updates.

2.2 Will Emirates Rebook Passengers on Disrupted Flights?

If an Emirates flight is disrupted, Emirates will try to rebook passengers on the first available connection.

If the disruption affects other connecting flights or the return journey, passengers should contact Emirates for help rebooking those flights as well.

2.3 Will Emirates Rebook Passengers on Another Airline?

Emirates will first try to arrange travel on the next available Emirates flight.

If no Emirates flights are available, it will look into other options. Passengers should contact Emirates for assistance.

2.4 Can Passengers Change Their Rebooked Flight or Cancel Their Journey?

If the new travel date or time does not suit the passenger, they should contact Emirates to discuss alternative options.

Changes depend on:

- The passenger's booked class of travel.
- Flight availability.
- The options available for the disrupted booking.

2.5 Hotel Accommodation During a Long Layover in Dubai

Passengers whose connection time in Dubai is between 10 and 24 hours might be eligible for Dubai Connect.

Eligible passengers can request Dubai Connect services through Manage Your Booking after completing the entry and testing requirements applicable to travel to Dubai and their final destination.

Eligibility is not automatic; passengers must meet the applicable requirements.

2.6 Options if Passengers Do Not Want to Travel During Severe Weather

According to the supplied Emirates page, a severe-weather waiver may allow passengers to:

- Change their travel date to a date within seven days before or after the original travel date.
- Change their booking to the closest airport in the same country.
- Request a refund for their ticket.

Passengers should contact Emirates to confirm eligibility and the applicable conditions before making changes.

2.7 Baggage That Does Not Arrive After a Flight Disruption

If a passenger's baggage does not arrive following a disrupted flight, they should follow the procedures in the separate Emirates — Delayed and Damaged Baggage document.

That document covers:

- Reporting missing baggage.
- Property Irregularity Report (PIR) reference numbers.
- Baggage tracking and tracing.
- Baggage delivery and compensation.

3. Special Travel Advisories

3.1 Additional Security Measures for Flights from Dubai to the USA

The supplied page describes additional security measures for USA-bound flights departing from Dubai International Airport (DXB).

It states that these measures began on 26 October 2017 in accordance with Transportation Security Administration (TSA) regulations. This is a historical date from the source, not confirmation that the same procedures remain in effect today.

The measures described include:

- Dedicated check-in areas for flights to the USA.
- Security-related questions before check-in.
- Enhanced electronic-device checks at the boarding gate.
- Security checks before boarding.
- Assistance from Emirates Group Security.

Passengers can still check in online and drop off checked baggage at the Online Check-in Baggage Drop counters in the dedicated USA check-in area.

Early check-in conditions stated in the supplied page:

- Early check-in is permitted only on the day of travel.
- It may be available up to 12 hours before departure.
- All travelling members must appear in person with their baggage and travel documents.

Passengers should confirm current airport security and check-in requirements before travel.

3.2 Importing Alternative Smoking Products into Hong Kong

The supplied Emirates page states that the Hong Kong Government introduced a ban effective 30 April 2022 on possessing or importing certain alternative smoking products.

The products described include:

- Electronic smoking products.
- Heated tobacco products.
- Herbal cigarettes.
- Parts and accessories intended for use with these products.

The source states that the ban applies to items carried in baggage, parcels, packages or cargo.

Exceptions described in the supplied page:

- Medicines approved under the Pharmacy and Poisons Ordinance.
- Transit passengers connecting through Hong Kong International Airport without passing through immigration.

The source states that non-compliance may result in a maximum penalty of six months' imprisonment and a fine of USD 50,000.

These details are based on the supplied page and should be checked against current Hong Kong government requirements before being used for travel advice.

4. Denied Boarding Options Voucher

4.1 What Compensation Is Offered if a Passenger Is Denied Boarding?

According to the supplied Emirates page, passengers who are not accepted on their flight will receive:

1. A confirmed seat on the next available flight to their final destination.
2. A voucher redeemable for a complimentary return ticket on selected Emirates routes.

Denied boarding compensation rules may differ depending on the local regulations that apply.

4.2 When and Where Is the Voucher Issued?

The passenger will receive the voucher from the Emirates Airport Services office once it has been established that they cannot board the flight.

4.3 How Can the Voucher Be Redeemed?

Passengers can book a ticket using the voucher through an Emirates Contact Centre or ticket office.

The supplied page specifies that:

- Booking must take place between 7 and 365 days after the voucher was issued.
- The ticket must be for a valid route under the denied boarding voucher redemption zonal table.
- The issued ticket is valid for one year from its issue date.

Passengers should contact Emirates to confirm the eligible routes and redemption conditions.

4.4 Can the Voucher Be Transferred to Someone Else?

No. The voucher is issued to the individual passenger and cannot be transferred to family members or friends.

The ticket issued using the voucher is also non-transferable.

4.5 Can the Voucher Be Exchanged for Cash?

No. The supplied Emirates page states that the voucher cannot be exchanged for cash.

4.6 Can the Voucher Be Split into Multiple Tickets?

No. The voucher can only be redeemed for one return ticket, and the redemption must be completed in one booking.

4.7 Can the Date or Route of the Compensation Ticket Be Changed?

Yes. The date or route can be changed within the applicable redemption zone if all the following conditions are met:

- The ticket has not been used at all.
- The new route remains within the applicable zone.
- The ticket is still within its one-year validity period.

The supplied page states that these eligible changes can be made without an additional charge.

Passengers should contact an Emirates Contact Centre to request the change.

4.8 Is Chauffeur-Drive Available on a Compensation Ticket?

Yes. The supplied page states that passengers can use Emirates Chauffeur-drive with a compensation ticket when travelling in Business Class.

4.9 Can Passengers Earn Skywards Miles on a Compensation Ticket?

No. Compensation tickets issued through this voucher programme are not eligible for Skywards Miles accrual, according to the supplied page.

4.10 Can Passengers Upgrade Using Skywards Miles?

Yes. Passengers may upgrade their cabin using Skywards Miles or cash.

They should contact Emirates for information about upgrade availability and the applicable conditions.

4.11 Can the Voucher Validity Be Extended?

No. The supplied page states that the voucher must be redeemed between 7 and 365 days after its issue date and cannot be extended.

4.12 Is an Infant Ticket Included?

No. The supplied page states that infant tickets are not applicable to denied boarding vouchers.
